LI: I will know how to do a detailed sectional drawing of a plant or flower

Last week we drew observational drawings of plants, flowers and leaves. This week we will be looking at our plant life in more detail.

Today you will need paper, pencil (sketchbooks in school) and a plant, leaves or a flower.

Here are some examples of your drawings from last week

LI: I will know how to do a detailed, sectional drawing of a plant or flower

This time when you draw, choose only a section of your plant or flower. For example just a petal, the leaf or stem. Make sure you look very closely at all of the details- some stems can be furry, or have thorns.

These drawings will be in preparation for next week when you will be designing your own chosen part of a plant to then create in clay or playdough at the end of this term. Only use pencil and take your time.

This is my example:
I drew the petal details of my favourite flower the hibiscus.
