Judaism: Shabbat

What Is Shabbat?

Shabbat is an exciting and important day that Jewish people look forward to all week.

For Jewish people, Saturday is a special day, just like Sunday is special to Christians and Friday is special to Muslims..

Shabbat is the fourth commandment: 'You shall remember to keep the Sabbath day Holy.' Saturday was the seventh day of the week and the day that God rested after creating the world. Ever since ancient times, Jewish people have kept the Sabbath day Holy by celebrating Shabbat.

When Is Shabbat?

It happens every weekend, beginning on Friday evening, and ending Saturday evening.

On Friday, families work together to prepare food, clean their houses and lay their dining tables ready for Shabbat.

How Is Shabbat Celebrated?

When Shabbat begins on Friday evening, everyone puts on their best clothes and gathers for their special meal. Other family members and friends may join them for this special occasion.

There are lots of traditions that take place during a Shabbat meal.

Shabbat Traditions

Shabbat Candles
are lit on the dinner table.

Challah bread
is eaten.

Wine (or grape juice) is shared in a Kiddush cup.

Blessings
are recited.

Challah Bread

Challah is a special plaited loaf that is bought fresh on Friday morning, ready for the Shabbat.

Two loaves are always bought together.

Challah tastes much sweeter than normal bread. This helps remind people that Shabbat is special.

Other Customs

Families will also visit a Synagogue during Shabbat.

Families enjoy talking together. Children can stay up late and tell and listen to stories. Songs are sung.

No work should be done. Including homework!

Havdalah is the end of Shabbat. A special plaited candle is lit and prayers are read. Special spices are smelt and finally the candle is put out in the wine.

What traditions do you have?

Create an invite for friends and family to celebrate a special day or tradition with you.
