R.E

Thursday 14th January 2021

I will know about the celebration Losar

Do Now: Recap

What is a New Year's resolution?

Challenge

Achieve

Inspire

New Year

Celebration

Tibetan Buddhist

osar

fresh start

What is Losar?

Losar is the Tibetan Buddhist New Year's celebration. This year Losar will take place on 12th February 2021. The celebrations can last between 3 and 15 days.

What happens during Losar?

During Losar Tibetan Buddhists clean, decorate their homes and wear new clothes. They also come together with others to eat and spend time celebrating They also try to settle any arguments before preparing for the New Year.

What happens during Losar?

During Losar Tibetan Buddhists prepare to have a fresh start and turn over a new leaf. They usually do this by thinking about some of the wrong decisions that they made during the previous year before trying to make better decisions the following year.

Challenge

Why do you think it might be important to have a fresh start for the New Year?

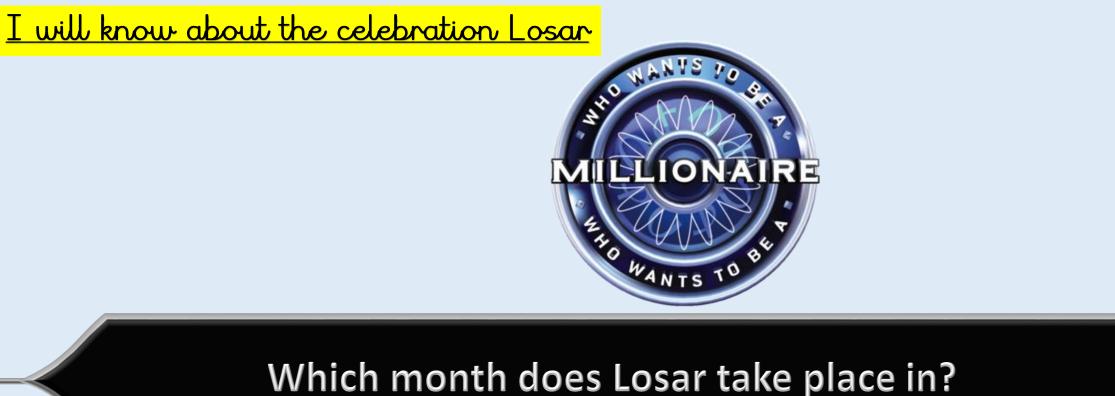

Some Tibetan Buddhists hang up prayer flags during Losar.

What food is eaten during Losar?

There are usually a range of foods on offer during Losar. Food such as red rice, stews, chilli peppers, fried biscuits, diced sugar cane and fruit are often eaten during Losar.

A: January

B: February

December

D: August

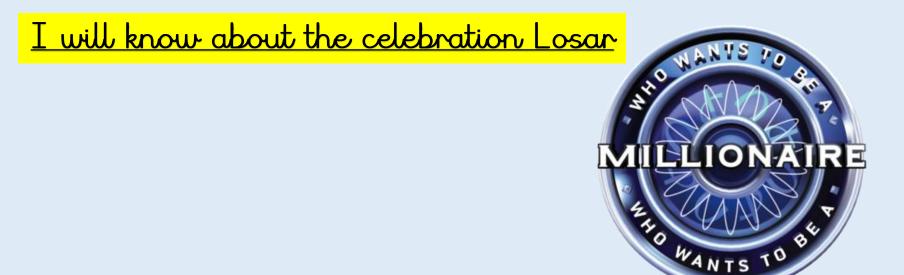

A: Christians

B: Muslims

C: Tibetan Buddhists

D: Hindus

Why do Tibetan Buddhists celebrate Losar?

A: To celebrate a couple getting married

To celebrate someone's birthday

C: To celebrate the New Year

To celebrate Christmas

Your task

Record some facts about Losar.

Remember to use capital letters, full stops and finger spaces.

It's time to share your facts about Losar.