Thinking about a character's thoughts

Review

Handwriting

- We will be practising writing the spelling words in sentences.
- It is important to practise writing on the line, forming the letters in the correct direction and if possible joining the letters together.

Today's handwriting lesson

Write down each sentence in your neatest handwriting.

There are nine sweets.

Ten people are waiting in the line.

Spot the mistakes.

You have 2 minutes to find and correct the mistakes.
How many mistakes can you find?

funni likt the old airport carpark,

Spot the mistakes- Answers

The mistakes have been highlighted in red.

funni likt the old airport carpark,

The mistakes have been corrected in green.

Do Now- Recap

What is the name of the little girl from our class story The Secret Sky Garden?

The little girl's name is.....

I will know how to think about a character's thoughts

Today we will be thinking about what could be missing for Funni.

I will know how to think about a character's thoughts

What does Funni think is missing?

My ideas.

I wish that I brought my book with me so that I could read.

If only I had someone with me so
I wasn't so lonely.

I will know how to think about a character's thoughts

You will now think about what could be missing from Funni's point of view

I wish...

If only...

I will know how to think about a character's thoughts

Independent Task

Pretend that you are Funni. You will be creating some thoughts from her point of view. Create at least one thought bubble for each sentence starter. Try to use a conjunction. (so, because). It might be easier if you write your idea first and then draw your thought bubble around your idea when you have finished.

Please upload a photo of your work onto the assignments section of teams or email us a photograph at
