

Welcome to Year 4 English

The lesson will begin at 9:15am

Turn your camera and microphone off please

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

Do now – Which one is an apostrophe?

- A) ‘
- B) .
- C) ,

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

I do:

An apostrophe can be used to show that something belongs to someone. When it is a singular noun you add an apostrophe and an "s".

For example:

That is Kates jacket.

That is Kate's jacket.

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

We do:

Add an apostrophe to the sentence below.

Tim's hair is curly.

Tim's hair is curly.

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

We do:

Add an apostrophe to the sentence below.

Hannahs coat is pink.

Hannah's coat is pink.

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

I do:

When the singular noun (name) ends in an "s" you only add an apostrophe.

For example:

Charles slippers are green.

Charles' slippers are green.

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

We do:

Which sentence is using the possessive apostrophe correctly?

A) Thomas's shoes are all muddy.

B) Thomas' shoes are all muddy.

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

I do:

For a plural noun (more than one person) that ends in "s" you only add an apostrophe.

For example:

The brothers feet were muddy.

The brothers' feet were muddy.

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

We do:

Which sentence is using the possessive apostrophe correctly?

- A) The boys' shoes were all the same.
- B) The boys's shoes were all the same.

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

I do:

For a plural noun (more than one person) that doesn't end in "s" we add an apostrophe and an "s".

For example:

The childrens toys were outside.

The children's toys were outside.

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

We do:

Add an apostrophe to the sentence below.

The familys dog was lost.

The family's dog was lost.

The mens taxi arrived.

The men's taxi arrived.

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

Pause Point:

When a singular or plural noun ends with an "s" we only add an _____.

When a singular or plural noun doesn't end in an _____ we add an _____ and an _____.

I will know how to use possessive
apostrophes.

Pause Point:

When a singular or plural noun ends with an “s” we only add an apostrophe.

When a singular or plural noun doesn't end in an s we add an apostrophe and an s.

I will know how to use possessive apostrophes.

You do:

Complete the worksheet by adding the correct type of possessive apostrophe.

Plenary

1. That is Harrys ball.
2. That is James ball.
3. The brothers trainers were all blue.
4. The childrens hands were covered in paint.

That is Harry's ball.

That is James' ball.

The brothers' trainers were all blue.

The children's hands were covered in paint.

