What are the key features of a paragraph?

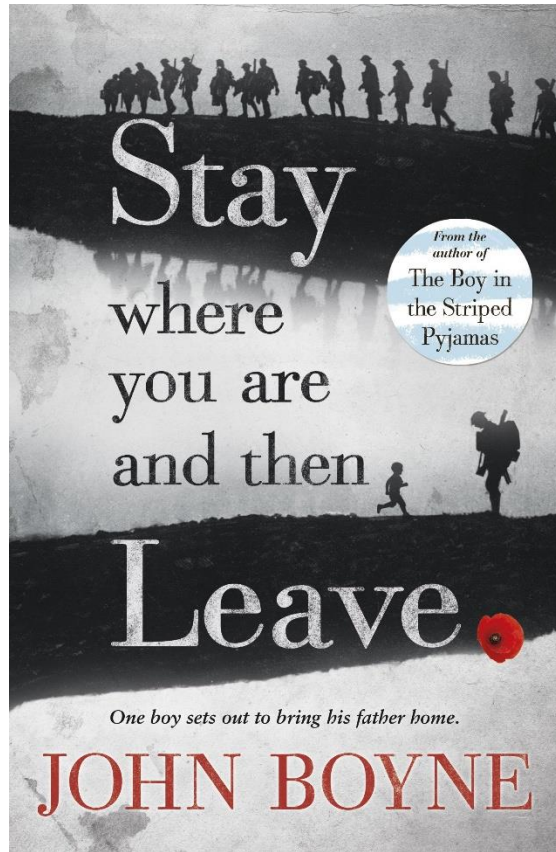

Write down what a paragraph must have to make it a paragraph.

A paragraph should be a piece of text that flows, not separate sentences.
It should stick to one topic or idea.
It should be between 5-7 sentences long, using a range of sentence types.
It should include other features such as adjectives, verbs, nouns, depending on the writing task.

Retrieving information in a text is a really important skill, you have to skim and scan the words to find what you are looking for.

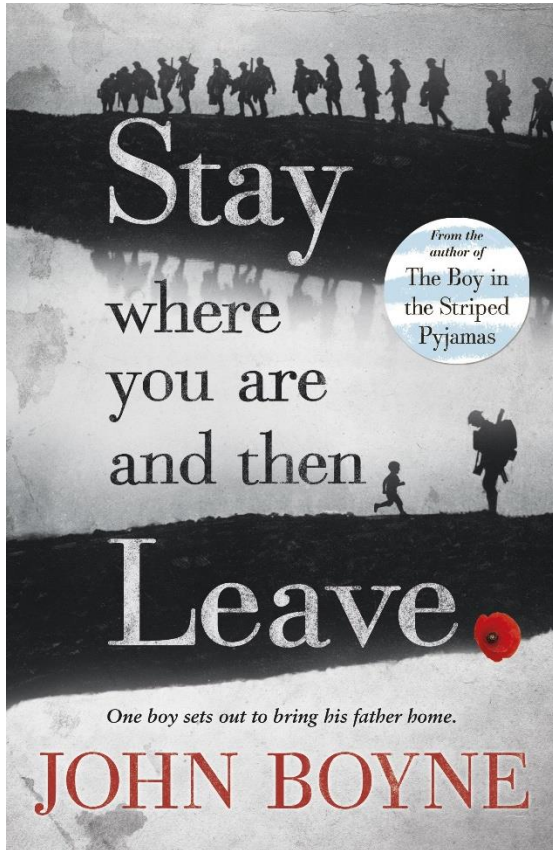

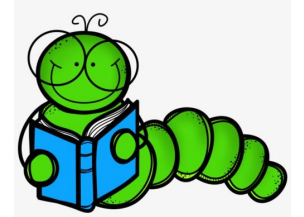

Let's practice!

Recently, I had the pleasure of seeing one of William Shakespeare's most beloved comedies, A Midsummer Night's Dream, performed beautifully at the Los Angeles Repertory Theatre in downtown Los Angeles. At first glance, this performance space looks more like an industrial warehouse than an art house, but walking in you are transformed to the magical land of Midsummer.

Inferring information in a text is a really important skill as it helps you to understand what is happening in a story. Particularly, how people are feeling or why they are behaving.

Let's practice!

I was diagnosed with Stage 4 Cancer in the summer of 1987. I didn't know how to feel; the doctor said it was only a matter of five months until I draw my last breath. I went out of the hospital and looked around. Nobody seemed to care that someone as famous and noble as me was going to die in five months. People were walking listlessly, busy with their own whereabouts. I wanted to disappear right in that moment. At the same time I wanted to shout to the world, "Why me?"

Understanding vocabulary in a text is a really important skill as it helps you to understand what y dictionary or you c think of other word

Let's practice!

Cats are good pets. You don't have to take a cat for a walk every day like a dog. You do not have to wash cats because they know how to clean themselves. If you want to go on vacation, you can leave some food and water for your cat and it will be okay. A cat can sleep on your bed and keep you warm at night. I think these things make cats good pets.

Apply reading skills – tick or fix:

- Retrieving information is not skimming and scanning.
- Inferring information is not understanding why people act a certain way.
- Understanding vocabulary is not using the text for help when learning new words.

Dear Kalena,

How are you? I am so worried about you and your father. I pray that you are both safe. Mum and I are both alright, just lonely.. How is your father? I really miss seeing you both in the street and at the shop. Life is not the same without you here. Where are you? Mum said they took you to the Isle of Man, is that right? I hope you are being looked after. I hope you're somewhere safe. I miss you so much! I am so sad without you. Please come back as soon as possible, you're my best friend and I miss you.

What Mrs Milchin said to you both was despicable! You're both innocent and this is truly unjust! You're not even German! This is completely unacceptable behaviour! I am both sad and angry for you, what happened is outrageous! This should never have happened to you or anyone else. No one deserves this. You'll make sure nothing like this ever happens again when you're Prime Minister, Kalena. I know you will.
