Facts and Opinions

When you see this guy, you need to stop and complete the task

I will know how to evaluate events in a story.

Do it Now

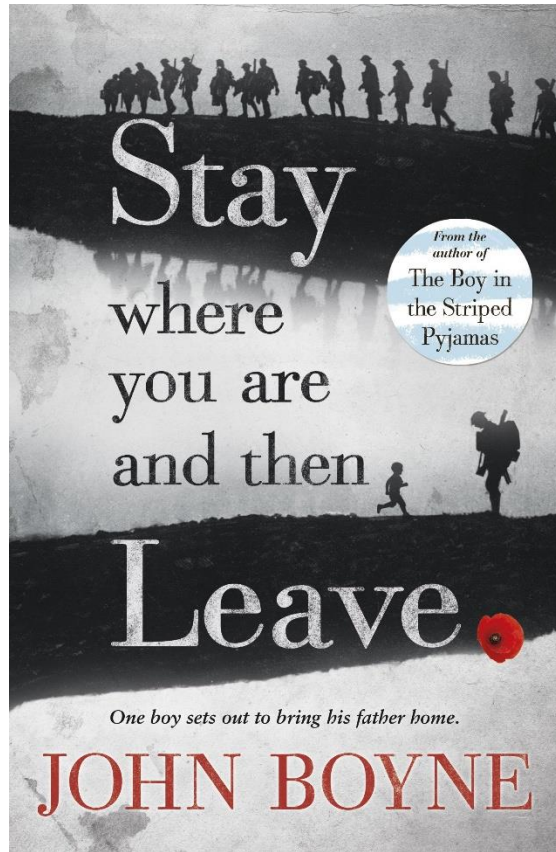

What do you think our new story will be about?

Write down a brief description of what you think our new book might be about.
What information did you use to come to your conclusion?

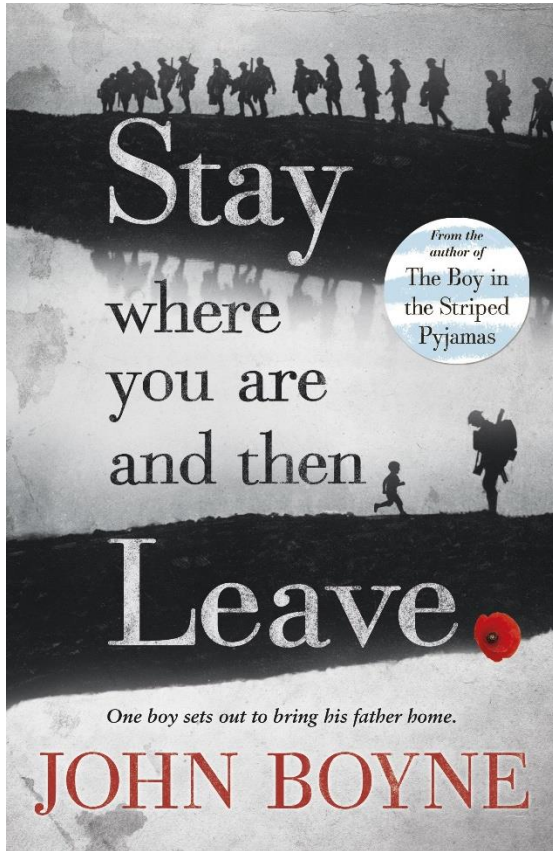

I will know how to evaluate events in a story.

Evaluate: make judgements (with justifications) about events in a story.

Perspectives and Opinions

We are going to be evaluating perspectives and opinions today, our own perspectives and opinions as well as others. Perspectives and opinions can be influenced by what we know (or think we know) of the world.

Our perspective

What was happened right? (Poll)

Mr Janacek's perspective

How do you think he was feeling? (Poll)

Mrs Milchin's perspective

How do you think she was feeling? (Poll)

Keep these questions in mind, we will be coming back to these after reading.

Pause Point - complete the activity in your book

I want you to write a sentence about how Alfie and Kalena might be feeling now that you know what has happened in the story so far. You have 2 minutes.

I think Alfie is feeling because...

I think Kalena is feeling ... because...

Plenary:

Evaluate – tick or fix:

- Mr Janacek and Kalena were treated fairly.
- Mrs Milchin was right to be upset with Mr Janacek.
- It was right what happened to Mr Janacek and Kalena.

Using the key ideas we have just discussed, you are now going to complete the independent task in assignments, labelled 23 Feb Guided Reading.

For this task, you will be writing a paragraph. There are no chilli tasks, you will all complete the same task.

You will be placed into breakout rooms so that you can work with an adult. Please complete your work in your breakout rooms and submit your answers by the end of the lesson. Please ask your adult if you have any questions.

I will know how to understand facts and opinions

Facts and Opinions: Facts are statements that are true and can be verified objectively or proven. In other words, a fact is true and correct no matter what. Opinions are statements that reflect the views or ideas that people have about subjects and topics.

Learn it - Facts and Opinions

Authors can often present their opinions as if they were facts. It is therefore important to be able to distinguish between facts and opinions.

Facts are true pieces of information. For example, it is a fact that London is the capital of England.

Opinions are things which may not be true and are based on personal thoughts and feelings. For example, Isaac may think London is best city in the world, whereas Uzma might think Edinburgh is.

Decide if the following pieces of text are fact or opinion:

Joe Patience's red door was inappropriate.

"You're the luckiest person I know," Alfie told Kalena.

Prague is a beautiful city.

"I have never even been to Germany."

Dear Sir,

I am writing to object very strongly to the plan to build houses on Farr's Field, Lower Buckham.

If 30 new houses are built on this land, the narrow local roads will struggle to cope with the extra traffic. Many of the lanes are not wide enough for two cars to pass each other and would be dangerous if they became any busier. Our school has no empty places and the doctor's surgery is always too busy already. Where will the people who buy these houses send their children to school, or see a doctor?

Houses like mine, which back on to Farr's Field, will lose their beautiful view and instead look out at row upon row of houses.

I know that there is a shortage of housing in the area, but Farr's Field has been used and enjoyed by the villagers for as long as any of us can remember. All year round it is used by ramblers and dog walkers and in the winter it provides some of the best sledging for miles around. The level area of the field is mown and used for football and cricket matches. The village park is lovely, but it slopes quite steeply in places, making it unsuitable for team games.

For these reasons, I am asking the council to turn down the application to build on this land.

Yours faithfully,

Ms Gowland

As mentioned, your formal complaint letter is going to be based on what has happened to Mr Janacek and Kalena.

You will need to decide on which facts and opinions to include. Let's brainstorm some of the facts and opinions from the story so far.
