

Commas after subordinate clauses

1. Add a comma to the sentences below which need one:
 - a. Simon ate his dinner although he didn't like it.
 - b. If it stops raining we will go for a walk.
 - c. After Mandy put on her shoes she was ready to go.
 - d. I ate my orange after I finished my sandwich.
 - e. If you tickle me anymore I will scream.
 - f. Although I know I shouldn't I picked the book based on the cover.

2. Use the subordinate clauses below in your own sentences – you may add them to the front or end of your sentence. Make sure you remember to add the comma after the subordinate clause.
 - a. until the rain stops
•
 - b. when the clown's nose fell off
•
 - c. because I had to
•
 - d. while I baked the cake
•

3. Write four sentences of your own, two with subordinate clauses at the front and two with subordinate clauses at the end. Remember your comma after your subordinate clause.
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.
 - d.