When it comes to coordinating conjunctions, there is a simple way to remember them.

Coordinating conjunctions are linking words, they link like with like. What this means is they link nouns with nouns, verbs with verbs, adjectives with adjectives and independent clauses with independent clauses.

For example -

She wore a red and black dress.

He could read or watch a film.

They weren't hungry nor were they thirsty.

Practice It - Coordinating conjunctions

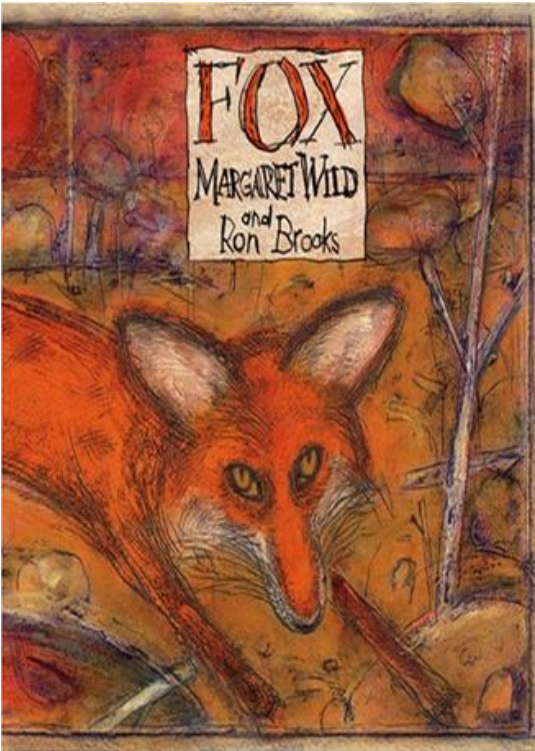

You are going to have two minutes to read the text below and write down all the coordinating conjunctions you can find.

“Stop!” warned Tyler for Kerry was about to step on a bone. They were currently creeping through an old and haunted graveyard. “There are more bones this way so we should follow them,” whispered Kerry. “I agree but we must be careful,” replied Tyler as he crept along. “I know it’s important that we are here yet I wish we weren’t.” he continued. “I don’t like this,” whimpered Kerry. “Can’t we come back when it’s lighter or with more protection?” “We don’t have the time nor the gear,” explained Tyler.

Using the key ideas we have just discussed, you are now going to complete the independent task in assignments, labelled 18 Jan English.

For this task, you will be answering questions. Please choose the chilli task you would normally pick at school.

You will be placed into breakout rooms so that you can discuss your task with an adult. Please open your task, read it and ask any questions you have.

Breakout rooms will be closed after 10 minutes and the meeting will end. There will be an adult online so you can re-join the meeting if you have any questions.
