FROM ENGLAND TO SOUTH GEORGIA

The journey from Plymouth to Buenos Aires was fairly uneventful. However, a few crew members were dropped due to drunkenness and insubordination. Luckily, the experienced Canadian seaman William Bakewell joined the crew, as did a plucky 19-year-old stowaway, Percy Blackborrow.

The crew then spent a month making final preparations at Grytviken whaling station, the southernmost outpost of the British Empire.

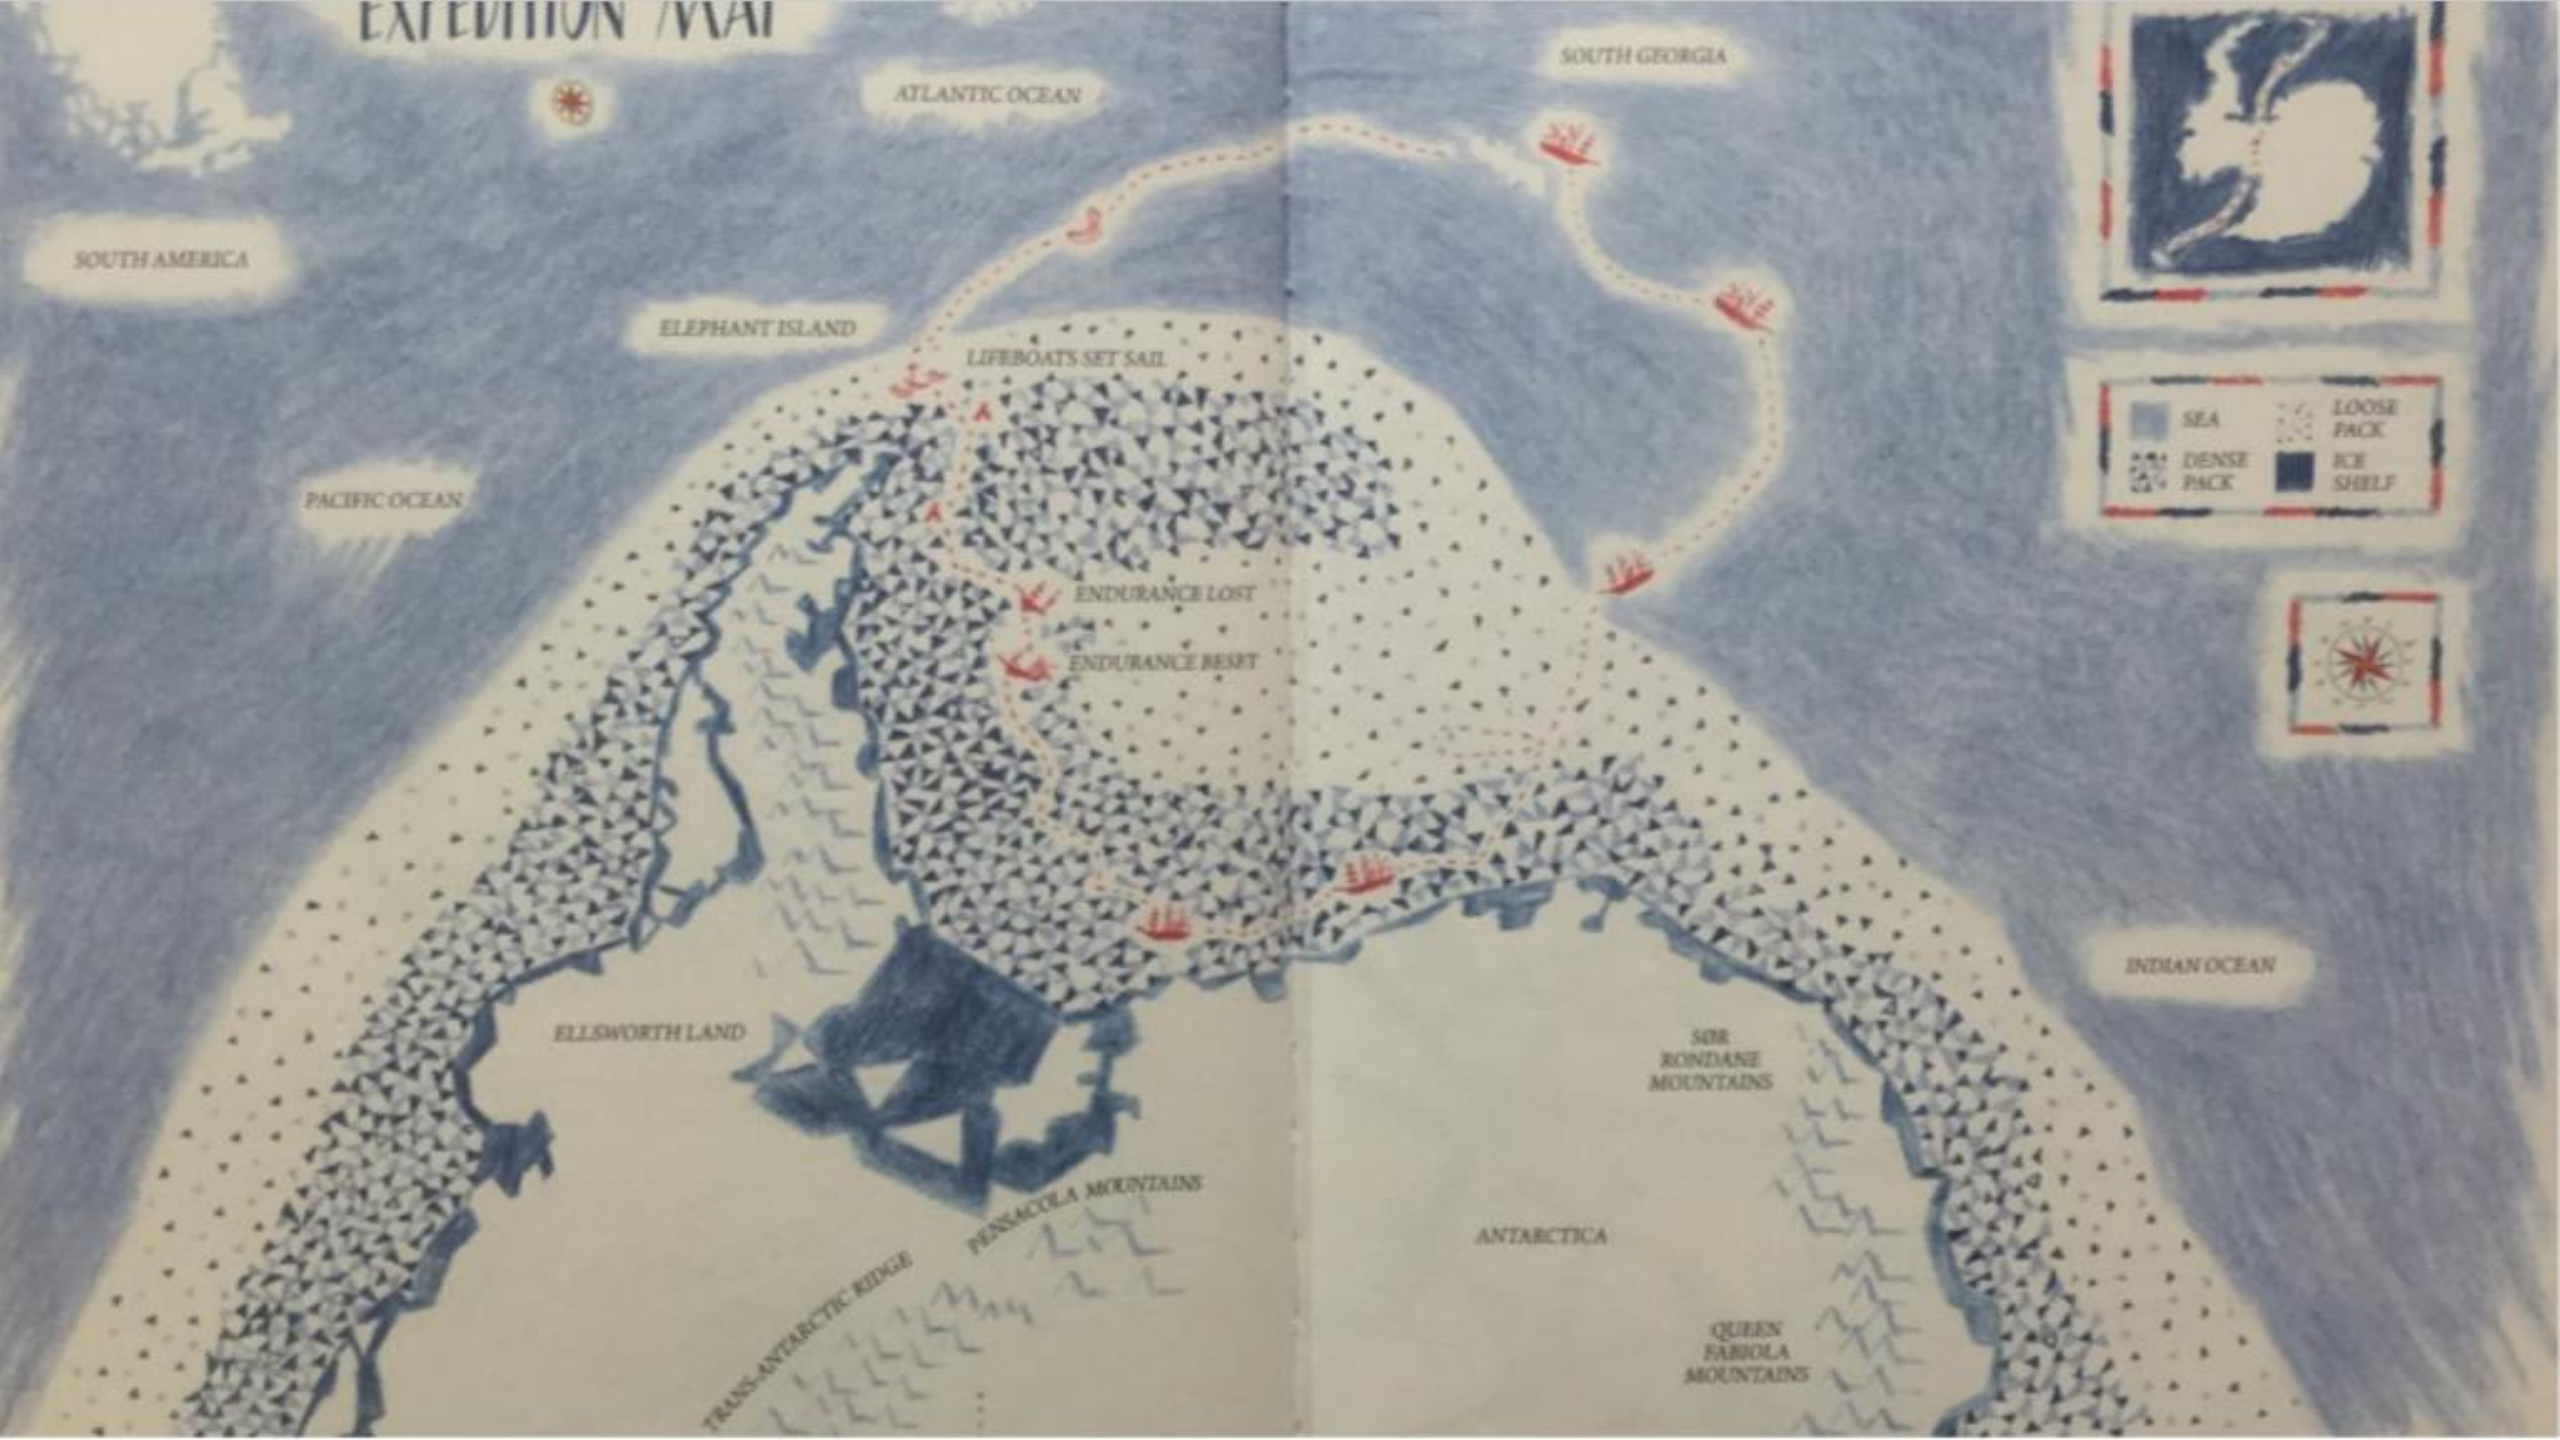

Ready at last, the ship left South Georgia on 5 December 1914 and headed for the South Sandwich Islands.

In Shackleton's words, "The long days of preparation were over and the adventure lay ahead."
