Can you write a question beginning with each of the question words on this hand and ending in a question mark? Write about the picture for each finger.

The image features a large, stylized hand with the following question words on its fingers and thumb:

- Thumb: Who? (pink text)
- Index finger: What? (orange text)
- Middle finger: Where? (green text)
- Ring finger: When? (yellow text)
- Pinky finger: Why? (blue text)

Surrounding the hand are several example questions in green rounded rectangles, each paired with a small illustration:

- Where did the spider go? (Illustration of a black spider)
- When can we have ice cream? (Illustration of an ice cream cone)
- Why are you dressed up? (Illustration of a woman in a black dress and a child in a purple witch costume standing by a door)
- What did you get for Christmas? (Illustration of two children sitting on the floor, one holding a wrapped gift)
- Who is coming to the party? (Illustration of four children sitting around a table with food and a birthday cake)

At the bottom left, there is a pink button that says "Show examples".

Can you write some more questions for each finger, using your own ideas?
